

Dear Lord, forgive My Wounds and help Me understand that your guidance kept Me going through life.
Not only did you change me, but you helped me to realize that you would be following on my footsteps. Even though we might feel sadness, anger or loneliness we will always worship or treat you like a father.

Casey