

Multicultural and Faith Week

In Elephant class, the children explored the country of India and looked at the Hindu festival of light called Diwali. The children make lanterns to show Rama and Sita the way home.

The children enjoyed the different workshops in each class. Here, they learnt about Japan and the symbolism of cherry blossom.

