SAFER RECRUITMENT POLICY

Introduction

The purpose of this policy is to set out the requirements of a recruitment process that aims to:

- attract the best possible applicants to vacancies;
- deter prospective applicants who are unsuitable for work with children or young people;
- Identify and reject applicants who are unsuitable for work with children and young people.

Statutory Requirements

The statutory requirements for the appointment of all staff must be met.

Identification of Recruiters

The school will ensure that at least one member of the interview panel have taken part in the statutory Safer Recruitment training. These are: Mr Bob Worth (Chair of Governors), Miss Grima (headteacher).

Inviting Applications

Advertisements for posts – whether in newspapers or online – will include the statement:

“The school is committed to safeguarding children and young people. All post-holders are subject to a satisfactory enhanced Disclosure Barring Service check.”

Prospective applicants will be supplied, as a minimum, with the following:

- job description and person specification;
- the school’s child protection policy;
- the school’s recruitment policy (this document);
- the selection procedure for the post;

- an application form (or details of how to apply online).

All prospective applicants must complete, in full, an application form.

Employment Checks

All successful applicants are required to provide:

- Proof of identity
- Verification of medical fitness
- Verification of qualifications
- Verification of professional status where required
- To complete a DBS disclosure application and receive satisfactory clearance
- The production of evidence of the right to work and live in the UK
- (for teaching post) verification of successful completion of the statutory induction period
- Disqualification by association.

Short-Listing and References

Short-listing of candidates will be against the person specification for the post and where possible, references will be taken up before the selection stage, so that any discrepancies can be probed during the selection stage. References will be sought directly from the referee. References or testimonials provided by the candidate will never be accepted.

Where necessary, referees will be contacted by telephone or email in order to clarify any anomalies or discrepancies. A detailed written note will be kept of such exchanges.

Referees will always be asked specific questions about:

- the candidate's suitability for working with children and young people;
- any disciplinary warnings, including time-expired warnings, that relate to the safeguarding of children;
- the candidate's suitability for the post.

School employees are entitled to see and receive, if requested, copies of their employment references.

Selection Process

Selection techniques will be determined by the nature and duties of the vacant post, but all vacancies will require an interview of short-listed candidates. Interviews will always be face to face.

Candidates will always be required:

- to explain satisfactorily any gaps in employment;
- to explain satisfactorily any anomalies or discrepancies in the information available to recruiters;
- to declare any information that is likely to appear on a DBS disclosure;
- to demonstrate their capacity to safeguard and protect the welfare of children and young people.

Induction

All staff who are new to the school will receive a Staff Handbook plus induction training that will include the school's safeguarding policies and guidance on safe working practices.
