8th November 2011.

Dear Miss Grima,

Section 48 Report

Your Section 48 report was presented to a recent Schools' meeting at the Diocese.

We were pleased to read about the work which you have been doing at the school as a new Headteacher to ensure that Burham is a good Church of England school. The impact which Collective Worship is having on the spiritual development of the children is most encouraging and we are sure that this will continue as you move forward.

Please pass on our thanks to your staff, governing body and the local church for their support for the Christian ethos of this church school. Thank you also for your own leadership and commitment.

Yours sincerely

The Revd Michael Camp
Vice Chair of the Diocesan Board of Education
