

20 Responses

Please note that not all questions for every response were answered

What do you think makes Burham CEP distinctively a church school?

- Daily worship and the importance placed upon the school values
- Acknowledging God and praying
- Religious events recognised, visible signs of Christianity, assemblies
- Act of Worship; religious message
- Worship instead of assembly; school uniform
- The way they teach them to behave and respect others
- Many services for the parents according to the religious calendar
- Active reinforcement of Christian values across spectrum of contact points; teachings based on bible
- Daily worship
- The C of E ethos it follows. The children's worship table
- The C of E ethos that it follows
- Family Eucharist; daily worship, including candles
- The effort put into work and teachings at the school
- School uniform, Acts of Worship which parents can attend, visits to the local church for the children
- Worship as a priority
- Religious services and religious artefacts
- School uniform

How would you describe the ethos of the school?

- It highlights important values to provide a nurturing learning environment
- Good Christian school
- Caring, understanding, promoting kindness and respect for others
- Caring
- Good
- Encourages respect for others
- Teaching within a framework/backdrop of Christian beliefs and values
- Caring, respectable
- Teaching with Christian values
- Thinking of each other. Emphasis on religion/worship. Sharing and caring
- Inclusive, caring, taking every child as an individual
- Caring, emphasis on politeness/behaviour; religious
- Promoting respect for others, very caring, nurturing etc. Respect for others' views
- Very good
- There is a nice ethos to the school
- All inclusive
- Welcoming, open, transparent
- Good

Does your child talk about worship/RE lessons in school?

- Yes, she often comments on what she has learnt and enjoys singing the songs from worship
- Yes, especially prayer
- Yes
- Yes
- Yes
- Yes
- Yes
- Sometimes. More about worship
- Sometimes, usually if it has involved some kind of role play/drama
- Yes frequently. She enjoys it very much, telling me stories
- Yes he does and he enjoys it and learns from it
- No
- Yes – he often comes home and spells out the first line of the hymn! (YrR) And talks about what was said in worship. He asks questions about God following discussion in class/worship
- No
- Yes
- Yes
- Yes

Do you attend church services?

- Occasionally for Brownie Church Parade and for special services
- Yes
- Yes
- No
- Sometimes special occasions
- Yes
- No
- Sometimes
- When possible
- Occasionally to the local church. Yes to the school services down Church Street
- Occasionally – always during Christmas and Easter and also on other occasions
- No
- No
- No as at work
- No
- No
- No
- No
- Yes

Any further comments about worship/RE:

- A valuable part of a child's education
- Keep it up
- Child tells me about Worship; about God